

PromoterPilot™

PROMOTERPILOT™ RESOURCE

PromoterPilot Product Overview

The entertainment management platform built for venues and performers.

Status note: PromoterPilot is in its founding-venue pilot at InTune Supper Club, Farmington, NY. National early access is now open; nationwide commercial deployment has not begun. Features marked "Pilot" operate at the founding venue only; "Built - Pending Activation" and "Planned" items are not yet available. Pricing is proposed and subject to final terms. No paid subscriptions are active.

The Mission

Make live entertainment easier to organize, easier to manage, and more rewarding for venues and performers.

The Problem

- Endless booking calls and emails
- Lost requests and forgotten conversations
- Double bookings and scheduling conflicts
- Misunderstood contract and payment terms
- Last-minute promotional confusion

One Connected Workflow

Founding-Venue Pilot - National Early Access Now Open.

- BOOK: calendar, requests, status tracking, double-booking protection, Eventbrite integration (Pilot)
- ARTISTS: registration, private dashboards, profiles, recruitment tracking (Pilot)
- REVIEW: management review workflows (Pilot)
- CONTRACT: electronic contracts and signatures (Built - Pending Activation)
- PROMOTE: event publishing, promotion approvals (Built - Pending Activation)
- PAY: settlement, payment recording (Built - Pending Activation). PromoterPilot does not process payments.

Where It Came From

PromoterPilot originated from real entertainment operations at InTune Supper Club in Farmington, New York, our founding pilot venue.
